Day 1

Read Matthew 28:20

Week 1 04

True friends never say, "I'm not going to be your friend anymore" for silly reasons. Just like Jesus said He is always with you and He will never leave you, that's how a true friend should be. There are true, good friends who will have an impact on you for the rest of your life.

Day 2

Read Romans 12:10

Week 1 04

In today's verse God tells us to be devoted to our friends and honor them. What do you think that means? It means be loyal and respectful to your friends. Look at your friendships and ask yourself if you've been loyal. Have you been respectful? If you are, then those are some awesome characteristics that will keep your friendships going.

Think of several ways you can be loyal or respectful to your buddies. Draw a cartoon of one of these situations.

Use another piece of paper if you need to.

ASK God to help you be a loyal and respectful friend.

Day 4

Read Matthew 7:12

Week 1 04

If you want to have a GOOD friend, you have to BE a good friend. If you want an HONEST friend, you have to BE an honest friend. If you want a KIND friend, you have to BE a kind friend. Do you see how this works? If you WANT a friend like that, then you have to BE a friend like that. If you want a TRUE friend like this, you have to KEEP ON being a true friend like this.

Make a list of things you want in a lasting friendship.

Your list is now your mission ... be these things to your friends!

KNOW that God wants you to be a true friend.

Day 3

Read Romans 12:18

Week 1 04

Have you ever noticed how peaceful an undisturbed lake without any waves can be? The water reflects like a mirror. Just like a peaceful lake, when we are at peace with those around us, we can reflect God to them. To keep a friendship going, God wants us to live at peace with those around us and not spend our time arguing or being hard to get along with.

Fill in the blanks:

I am challenged to live at peace with _____ because of _____.

Ask one of your parents to pray for you about this.

LOOK to God to show you how to be peaceful.
